alent whatever, thereby violating the plighted faith of the State and increasing the burthens of the people, at a time when the country pre-eminently required the most rigid economy and the strictest husbandry of their resources.

And whereas, The said act was approved by the Governor as shown by his message to the House of Representatives of the 5th day of February last, under a stipulation in writing for the benefit of the people, which was not made known to them, and has since been surrendered without their knowledge or consent on the demand of the said company without any previous registry in the proper office, and without even the preservation of a copy thereof:

And whereas, It is affirmed and believed that the terms of the said act of Assembly were dictated by the said company, and that the passage thereof was procured by improper and unlawful means, other than those which have been already recited on the part of the said company and its agents; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the said recited act of Assembly of the 7th of March, A. D., 1861, be and the same is hereby repealed, and the said tonnage tax or duties imposed by the act incorporating the said Pennsylvania railroad company is hereby re-stored, re-imposed and made payable to the Commonwealth in the same manner, and upon the same terms and conditions as though the said repealing act had never been passed.

SEC. 2. That it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to proceed forthwith to sue for, recover and collect by distress irreplievable or otherwise, the arrears of the said Tonnage tax which were due and owing at the time of the passage of the said recited act which is hereby repealed, together with such additional tax or duties as would have accrued upon the tonnage of the said company until the date of the present act. And for the proper ascertainment of the amount of the said additional tax, it shall be the duty of the said company to file, forthwith, in the office of the Auditor General a statement, duly authenticated by the oaths of the President and Treasurer of said company, of the amount of their business so made taxable for the intervening period, and also to furnish to the Attorney General, from time to time, such other and additional statements, and such access to their books as he may judge necessary, for the purpose of said suit or other proceedings hereby authorized: Provided however, That the moneys paid by the said company on account of the said pretended commutation over and beyond the annual instalment or instalments payable by them on their bonds for the purchase money of the public works, shall be credit upon the arrears of the said tax which were due and owing at the passage of the said repealed act, and allowed in the collection of the said arrears.

During the discussion on a motion to make the subject a special order for a future day, the hour of one arriving, the Speaker adjourned the House till to-morrow at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The Old Kentucky Homes.

A correspondent, with Gen. Mitchell's command, writes as follows to the Cincinnati Gazette, from a point south of Green river:

Some of the most beautiful farms, and lovely residences, which only a few months ago adorned these fertile valleys, are now the abodes of owls and bats. In order to impede our march, the road had been obstructed for miles with fallen timber. In many places the road had been plowed up. All the ponds, some fifteen in number, on the line of march, were rendered unfit for man or beast, owing to the fact that these desolators had killed horses, cattle, sheep, and hogs, ripped them open, and thrown them into the water. In a few instances drains had been dug, and the water let off. I counted, in the distance of eighteen miles, eleven sites, where once stood residences, now nothing left but a few charred timbers.

As we passed Cave City, I rode over to take a view of the ruins of the once fine Cave City Hotel. Here it was that the visitor came afar to visit that wonder of wonders, the Mammoth Cave. Nothing now remains but the indubitable evidence of the fiendishness of Hindman and his guilty marauders. Many incidents occurred during the march of eighteen miles of an affecting nature. As the column passed the Woodland House, where the remains of Zollicoffer were received, the stars and stripes once again greeted our vision, waved by a couple of young ladies. Several of the officers dismounted and entered the hotel. The young ladies proposed to sing the Star-Spangled Banner, we joining in the chorus. I have often heard it sung; but never before did its notes fall so sweetly as then. As the joyous party came in on the last verse, the enthusiasm became intense.

The old lady, with tears in her eyes, blessed God that their hour of deliverance had come. After drinking the health of the hostess, in the shape of some good buttermilk, we took our departure, satisfied that there are still many loyal hearts in this part of Kentucky.

Executive Order No. 2---In Relation to State Prisoners.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, Feb. 27, 1861.

It is ordered, first, that a special commission of two persons, one of military rank and the other in civil life, be appointed to examine the cases of the State prisoners remaining in the military custody of the United States, and to determine whether, in view of the public safety and the existing rebellion, they should be discharged, or remain in military custody, or be remitted to the civil tribunals for trial.

Second, That Major General John A. Dix, commanding in Baltimore, and the Hon. Edwards Pierrepont, of New York, be, and they are hereby, appointed commissioners for the purposes above mentioned, and they are authorized to examine, hear, and determine the cases aforesaid ex parte, and in a summary manner, at such times and places as in their discretion they may appoint, and make full report to the War Department.

By order of the President,
EDWIN M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.

Our Flag Forever.

NOTICE.

We have not the time nor the inclination, to dun personally, a large number of persons who have unsettled accounts upon our books of several years standing. We shall, therefore, from day to day, without respect to persons, place into the hands of a Justice for collection, all accounts of over two years standing. All those who wish to save expense, will do well to give us a call immediately.

THE Journal & American of last week states that when the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to the resolution for the expulsion of Bright, and it came back to the House, Mr. Scott voted against receding from the amendment. Upon looking at the Legislative Record, we find Mr. Scott was not there to vote upon that question at all. A report of a committee in a contested election case, presented a few days afterwards, shows that when that vote was taken, he was absent in Philadelphia, attending to his duties as a member of that committee, in hearing the evidence in the case.—Now the Jour. & Am. either was willing to make the charge without examining, or if they did examine the Record, to falsify it. We will see if the editors of that paper have the manliness to do justice.

THE Secretary of War has forbidden the publication of war news, unless with his or the consent of the commanding Generals of the army. Up to the hour of going to press, we have received no later news in regard to the movements than will be found in our columns. There is evidently something of immense importance about to take place, as McClellan, Halleck and Buell have all put their forces in motion and our readers may prepare to give three times three and a tiger for the glorious results, for victory must necessarily perch upon our banners and the old stars and stripes wave triumphantly over every rampart and fortification within the limits of this continent.

TO THE exclusion of our usual variety, we give the great and able speech of Hon. John Scott, member of the Legislature from this county, on the Commutation of the Tonnage Tax.—We ask every reader of the Globe to peruse it carefully. This winter we have a member in the House whose power and influence are felt, and whose clear-toned and eloquent voice is heard echoing and re-echoing through the Capitol of Pennsylvania, and grave members sit and listen to his sound and convincing arguments with fear and trembling.

NOT A DESERTER.—James Huston, of McConnellstown, has been published as a deserter in the Journal & American, by Captain Hewitt. By the certificate of J. P. Wilson, Medical Director at Camp Curtin, now before us, it appears that said Huston was regularly discharged on the 4th of January last; but having recovered from his illness, he again volunteered, and is a member of Company F, 2d P. V. Cavalry Reg.

SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.—Elias Winters will sell at his residence in Porter township, on Thursday the 20th inst., horses, cows, farming utensils, etc., etc.

Our Army Correspondence.

CAMP GRIFFIN, VA., Feb. 11, '61.

MESSRS EDITORS:—Some time since I promised some friends in Huntingdon county, that I would use my pen, to occasionally, through the medium of your paper, inform them of the "whereabouts and doings" of the 49th, P. V. Owing to a scarcity of interesting matter, and other reasons, I have not fulfilled my promise, but if my friends will forgive my negligence, and you will give space in your columns, I will endeavor to do better in future, by supplying such information as will be interesting to persons having friends in the regiment.

We have been under marching orders for almost a month, but owing to reasons "to us unknown," are still encamped near Lewinsville. In preparation for our movement we have been supplied with new rifles of Austrian manufacture, which throw balls, with fearful accuracy, a distance of 1200 yards, new overcoats, rubber blankets, and the queerest little tents I ever saw. They are intended for three men, and are to be carried by the occupants, when on march. The canvass is in two pieces, which button together when the tent is pitched.—When the order comes to "strike tents," two of the mess take each half the canvass, and the third man carries the poles and pins. I presume when the friends of the boys read the above they will think we are overloaded, but they may dismiss all such fears, for the whole thing weighs less than three lbs.

The health of the Regiment is remarkably good; indeed, Dr. Huber, our kind and efficient Assistant Surgeon informs me that "there is not a single man belonging to the Regiment who is unable to walk about."

If we make a "move" of any kind, I will endeavor to inform you immediately.

Before closing I must refer to a report which has been circulated in Huntingdon, by some person who has visited this side of the Potomac, to the effect that our officers were not temperate men; I can easily understand why our friends express so much uneasiness on our account, after the report reaches them; but I can not understand how any man could come here, and after enjoying the hospitality of our officers, go among the people whose sons and brothers compose the Regiment, and circulate so vile and malicious a slander. There is but one man in H. capable of it. One who was willing to "serve the people" when well paid for it, but who would prefer assisting their enemies, to taking up arms in defence of the Union. Our officers, from the Colonel down, are gentlemen of the genuine stamp, and I must give the lie to any man, be he who he may, who will assert the falsehood to which I refer. If he will avow himself, give him my name, and when a suitable opportunity offers I will force his assertions down his throat.

Yours ever,
D. H. L.

CAMP PIERPONT, VA., Feb. 24, 1862.

DEAR EDITORS:—The glorious achievements of our forces further South, have the effect of inspiring our army of the Potomac with bright anticipations of a speedy restoration to the more genial and quiet life of home.

We have but little expectation of an engagement with the enemy, unless he persists in the occupation of Centreville and Manassas. However, even if any demonstration is intended to be made at either or both of these points, it cannot be an early one, as the roads, now absolutely impassable, have every indication of continuing so for a month or two to come.

The men generally, I believe, are anxious to extend the "red right hand" at the earliest possible period, in order that they may return home in time to assist in paying the taxes.

I am of opinion now, that unless some terrible reverses overtake us, this rebellion will have ceased before the expiration of six months.

Virginia, I imagine, will not long continue her allegiance to the Southern cause, as the doses of Unionism which she is compelled to swallow, cannot but have the effect, notens volens, of purging her from all uncleanness.

Deluded Letcher, whose fancy invested the Susquehanna with greater charms than the Potomac, as the dividing line between the contending armies, doubtless curses himself for his credulity, as he gazes upon the slow, sure, and irresistable progress of subjugation.

Poor Virginia has been treated badly by her sons; in the very prime of life she becomes grey haired, through much grief and tribulation; when her limbs should have been strongest, she is compelled to resort to crutches, and as she totters about, emaciated and forsaken, one is compelled to watch her movements more in "sorrow than in anger."

I observe, by reference to the columns of the Globe, that the Union sentiment is not diminishing in Huntingdon county, as is demonstrated by the marriage notices, which are not unfrequent.

I was somewhat surprised to learn that my friend, the counsellor, (Lytle) had "gone off." I am requested to notify you that we soldiers, who are bound in the privilege of "looking out" for ourselves, will expect you to intercede in our behalf, and reserve a number of better halves for us until our return.

A lady is a rarity here, and when the camp sometimes is favored by woman's heaven-inspiring countenance, crowds of anxious eyes may be seen vieing with each other in the endeavor to get "just a glimpse of the dear creature."

You cannot possibly imagine what barbarians we are becoming. If our isolation from the finer elements of society should continue for the term of our enlistment (three years,) we would actually be totally unfit to go into civilized community.

The health of our company still continues remarkably excellent. The death of Mr. White, of your county, in camp, was profoundly lamented by his friends and acquaintances here.

INFANTRY.

P. S.—Since writing the above, we were visited by a terrible wind storm. Tents and trees were overturned by the hurricane, despite all exertions to keep the proper end uppermost. The danger to life in many instances was imminent, from trees falling among the domicils of the boys in camp. One man of a neighboring regiment, I am told, was instantly killed in this manner. I.

WAR NEWS.

THE WAR IN ARKANSAS.

CAPTURE OF FAYETTEVILLE.

THE U. S. TROOPS POISONED.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN DOLFERT.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 27.—The following despatch was sent from headquarters to-day, to Major General McClellan, Washington:

Gen. Curtis has taken possession of Fayetteville, Arkansas, capturing a number of prisoners, stores, baggage, &c. The enemy burnt part of the town before leaving. They have crossed the Boston Mountain in great confusion. We are now in possession of all their strongholds.

Forty-two officers and men of the Fifth Missouri Cavalry were poisoned at Mudtown, by eating poisoned food which the rebels left behind them.—The gallant Captain Dolfert died, and Lieut. Colonel Deutch and Captain Schman have suffered much, but are recovering. The indignation of our soldiers is very great, but they have been restrained from retaliating upon the prisoners of war.

H. W. HALLECK,
Major General.

CROSS HOLLOWS, Ark., Feb. 24.—Our army is waiting for supplies, and will not be likely to move for ten or twelve days. Price and McCulloch are beyond the Boston Mountains. Our troops took possession of Fayetteville at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The ruins of the town were smoking when the troops entered.

The rebels are badly demoralized. A Louisiana and a Texas regiment are with McCulloch.

From the Upper Potomac---Six Soldiers Drowned.

SANDY HOOK, Feb. 27.—Six soldiers were drowned in the Potomac yesterday by the upsetting of a boat. They all belonged to Company P, of Colonel Geary's regiment. Their names were as follows: Abram Spicer, Alexander Helverson, John Wood, — Artlep and John Torode. The unfortunate men would not have met with the disaster, had they not become alarmed at the careening of the boat.

VERY IMPORTANT FROM THE WEST.

COLUMBUS TO BE EVACUATED BY THE REBELS.

ISLAND NO. 10 TO BE DEFENDED.

THE OCCUPATION OF NASHVILLE CONFIRMED.

The Evacuation of Columbus, Ky.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.—The Memphis papers of the 19th, say that Gen. Polk issued orders on the day previous directing that the track of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad should be torn up and the bridges destroyed, preparatory to the evacuation of Columbus, and demolition of the fortifications.

The Columbus forces are to fall back to Island No. 10, on the Mississippi, about forty-five miles below Columbus.

This, it is said, completely commands the river, and can be fortified with heavy guns, and made impregnable against any river attack.

Federal Occupation of Nashville.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.—The Democrat's Clarksville despatch of the 26th, says:

Gen. Nelson is in command at Nashville, Gen. Buell being still on the north side of the river.

The Union sentiment was very strong, and our troops were received with great cordiality.

Great indignation was expressed by the citizens of Nashville against Gov. Harris.

He was fairly driven away by the Union men—the latter having become bold at the prospect of the Union troops, and dared to assert their rights.

Gen. Crittenden's command had joined Gen. Johnston, at Murfreesboro. The railroad bridge at Murfreesboro was destroyed by order of Floyd.

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC.

Movement of General Banks' Column.—Harper's Ferry and Charlestown Occupied.—The Inhabitants Overjoyed at the Presence of the Union Forces.—The Rebels at Winchester.

BOLIVAR, Feb. 28.—General Banks' army occupied Harper's Ferry unopposed on Wednesday, with all the necessaries for a permanent occupation.

The advance took possession of Bolivar heights yesterday, and pushed its reconnoissance to Charlestown, capturing a few prisoners. Loudon heights are also occupied in order to prevent any flank movement by the enemy.

To-day Charlestown was occupied by a strong force and will be held against any attack. The plans of the commander are not known, but the movement is probably intended to cover the reconstruction of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and bridges, and perhaps means more.

A train of cars passing Berlin station was fired at to-day by a rebel battery, but no harm was done.

Hundreds of refugees have returned to their desolated homes and those remaining are overjoyed at our presence.

Nothing reliable has been heard from Winchester, but the current reports say it has been considerably reinforced. A small body of the enemy are supposed to lie south of Loudon Heights, four or five miles back from the river, but they are not of sufficient strength to cause any alarm.

THE BURNSIDE EXPEDITION.

Reconnoissance up the Chowan River.—The Capture of Winton.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—A dispatch from Commodore Goldsborough to Secretary Welles, dated United States Steamer Philadelphia, off Roanoke Island, February 23d, says:

"The reconpoitering party sent up to Chowan's river has returned; it did not go up beyond Winton—there the enemy, in considerable force, opened a heavy fire upon the vessel in advance, the Delaware, with a battery of artillery and musketry, which induced our force to attack it in return, both by landing the 9th New York Zouaves and with the guns of the vessels that could be brought to bear. The enemy soon took flight, and the houses he occupied as quarters were burned. Not a man on our side of either arm was injured.

AN EXPEDITION TO EASTPORT, MISSISSIPPI.

Strong Union Feeling in South Tennessee and North Alabama.—Tyranny of the Rebels.—Seizure of Wheat and Flour by our Forces.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Dispatches were received at the Navy Department to-day from Com. Foote, enclosing a report from Lieut. Given, in which he says he returned to Cairo on the 23d, after having gone up the Tennessee river in the gunboat as high as Eastport, Alabama.

He is happy to state that he has met with an increased Union sentiment in South Tennessee and North Alabama—he saw a few Mississippians in Sardin, McNary, Wayne and Decatur, and a portion of Hardiman, all of which border upon the river.

The Union sentiment is strong, and those who do not express themselves openly loyal, are only prevented by their fears of the military tyranny and coercion which is practiced by marauding bands of guerilla companies of cavalry.

Learning that a large quantity of wheat and flour was stored in Clifton, Tennessee, intended of course to be shipped to the South, a large portion of it having been bought for a firm in Memphis, on his way down he landed there and took on board a thousand sacks and one hundred barrels of flour, and some 6,000 bushels of wheat.

He also considered it his duty to take possession of the above, in order to prevent its being seized by the rebels, or dispersed in the rebel country.

The glorious successes of our armies at Forts Henry and Donelson, he says have been most beneficial to the Union cause throughout south and west Tennessee and Alabama.

The Union men can now begin to express their loyal sentiments, without fear of being mobbed, especially along the banks of the river. He brought down, under arrest, a man named Wm. P. Poole, who has been active in opposing the Union men in his community.

He has warned the inhabitants of the different towns along the banks of the river, that he would make Secessionists and their property responsible for any outrages committed on the Unionists in their communities, and had enlisted seventeen men and brought down a portion of the refugees.

DEATH OF GEN. LANDER.

The Mexican Question.---No Passes Granted to go South.---The Troops in Every Department in Good Condition. ---They are Anxious to Meet the Enemy.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Gen. Lander died this afternoon at Pawpaw, Western Virginia, from the debilitating effects of his wound, received at Edwards' Ferry. His body is on the way to this city, where his widow resides.

It is said to be clearly understood between the allied powers, that a monarchy in Mexico will result from the invasion of that country, notwithstanding the assurances given to the United States that they should not seek any political object there.

It is believed they disposed of those assurances by saying that the monarchy will be established by the free choice of the Mexican people, just as the Empire was established in France by the free choice of the French nation.

The War department refuses to transmit any letters to the Southern States.

Numerous passes have been given to women, children and persons in ill health to return to their friends and families. Passes for business purposes or to persons merely desiring to visit the South and West are invariably refused.

Reports from every military depot received during the past week, represent the troops as being in a good condition, and that there prevails among them a vigorous and patriotic spirit for action in the field.

Numerous applications by regiments and officers have been made to be released from duty in guarding posts, and placed where they will have an opportunity of meeting the enemy in battle.

THE WAR IN TENNESSEE.

Official Despatches.—A Military Provisional Government to be Established.—Andrew Johnson to be a Brigadier General.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Official information to the War Department, from Nashville, represents that the military work in that State is about completed, and that it only remains to effect a civil reorganization of the State Government.

It is believed that the United States forces will occupy Columbus to-day.

The rebel forces, under Albert S. Johnson, are being steadily pressed by Gen. Buell.

Cotton to the value of $700,000 has fallen into our hands at Nashville, and the Treasury Department has taken measures to have it brought to New York.

The President has designated the Hon. Andrew Johnson to be a brigadier general, and he proceeds to Tennessee to-morrow to open a military Provisional Government of Tennessee, until the civil Government shall be reconstructed.

Gen. Buell will be nominated to morrow as a major general of volunteers.

Evacuation of Columbus Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The following despatch was received to day from Commodore Foote, dated Cairo, March 1:

"Lieut. Commanding Phelps, sent with a flag of truce to-day to Columbus, has this moment returned and reports that Columbus is being evacuated. He saw the rebels burning their winter quarters and removing their heavy guns on the bluffs, but the guns on the water batteries remain intact. He also saw a large force of cavalry drawn up ostentatiously on the bluff, but no infantry were to be seen, as heretofore. The encampment seen in our armed reconnoissance, a few days since, has been removed. Large fires were visible in the town of Columbus and upon the river bank below, indicating the destruction of the town, the military stores and equipments.

"A. H. FOOTE, Flag Officer."

It is believed here that our army has by this time occupied Columbus.

How a Man Feels on the Battle Field.

Few persons are there who have not some curiosity about battle-fields, and who do not desire to know how men feel when under fire, especially before custom has made them feel indifferent or secure. Most of those who were at Donelson must have had this experience, as the field was such that few could go to any part of it without incurring more or less risk. Hardly any one could see the enemy or their guns, and consequently the first intimation of their presence would be the falling of a shell or the rattling of shot or balls in his immediate vicinity.

I do not suppose I have much physical or moral courage, but the sensations under fire, judging from my experience, are different from what is expected.

A reasoning man at first feels alarmed, and his impulse is to run away; and if he has no reason to stand, he probably does run; but at each explosure, he grows less timid, and after hearing canister and grape about his ears a dozen times, begins to think he is not destined to be hurt.

He still feels rather uneasy, perhaps; but the danger becomes fascinating, and, though he don't wish to be hit, he likes to have narrow escapes, and so voluntarily places himself in a position where he can incur more risk.

After a little while he begins to reason the matter; reflects upon the doctrine of probabilities, and how much powder and lead is necessarily wasted before a man is killed or wounded.—Why should he be, he thinks, so much more unlucky than many other people; and he soon can hear the whizzing of bullets with a tolerable degree of equanimity, though he involuntarily dodges, or tries to dodge, the cannon balls or shells that go howling around his immediate neighborhood. In the afternoon he is quite a different creature from what he was in the morning, and involuntarily smiles to see a man betray the same trepidation which he himself exhibited a few hours before.

The more he is exposed to fire, the better he can bear it; and the timid being of to-day is the hero of to-morrow; and he who runs from danger on the first battle-field will run into it on the next, and court the hazard he once so dreaded.

Thus courage, as it is styled, is little more with most men than custom; and they learn to despise what has often threatened without causing them harm. If wounded, they learn wounds are less painful to bear than they had supposed, and then the doctrine of probabilities teaches them once more they are less liable to be wounded again. So the mental process goes on until the Nerves become by degrees the subjects of Will; and he only fears who has not the will to be brave.

A BATTLE FOUGHT!!!

AND

A BRILLIANT VICTORY WON.

ADJUTANT GEN. LEWIS;

After a severe engagement which lasted for nearly four days, I have at last routed the enemy and captured a large number of Guns, Revolvers, Book Knives, and a great quantity of camp equipage, and other valuable articles which I immediately shipped by railroad from the field of action, and now announce

HIGH PRICES DEFEATED.

On opening and examining the valuables captured, they were found to comprise an endless variety in Hardware and Cutlery of every kind, that I can supply the people of all ages and classes; even from a toy horse in fact to a supporting cane for the feeble old man. Boys or girls, Lords or Ladies, Soldiers or Citizens, Housekeepers or Bachelors, Farmers or Mechanics, Lawyers or Doctors, anybody and everybody may be furnished with a useful memento of this eventful battle by calling at the Hardware Store of

BANKERS,

No. 114 South Third Street,

PHILADELPHIA.

Pursuant to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, the Subscription Book to the NEW NATIONAL LOAN of Treasury Notes, bearing interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum, will remain open at my office, until further notice, from 9 A. M. till 5 P. M., and on Mondays till 9 P. M.

NO. 114 S. THIRD STREET,

These notes will be of the denomination of FIFTY DOLLARS, ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS, FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, and FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS, and are all dated 15th of August, 1861, payable in gold, in three years, or convertible into twenty years' six per cent. bonds, at the option of the holder. Each Treasury Note has interest coupons attached, which can be cut off and collected in gold at the joint every six months and at the rate of one cent per day on each fifty dollars.

Payments of subscriptions may be made in Gold or Checks, or Notes of any of the Philadelphia Banks.

Parties at a distance can remit by their friends, through the mail, or by express, or through Banks, and the Treasury Notes will be immediately delivered, or sent to each subscriber as they may generally direct.

Parties remitting must add the interest from 15th of August, the date of all the notes, to the day the remittance reaches Philadelphia, at the rate of one cent per day on each fifty dollars.

ANCIENT JERUSALEM,

A LARGE AND BEAUTIFUL

And the Sacred Places Surrounding the

HOLY CITY,

AS THEY APPEARED IN ANCIENT TIMES.

The above work is commended to the favorable notice of clergymen, and those having charge of Sunday-school, Bible-classes, and public institutions.

It is about 9 feet long and 6 feet wide, colored and varnished, and mounted on canvas with rollers.

It has been constructed from the most reliable and authentic sources, and will be found an invaluable aid to those engaged in lecturing on the Holy Land, or in imparting instruction to school classes on the subject to which it refers.

It aims to give an exact idea of the city as it appeared in ancient times. It is taken as a "bird's eye view" of "bird's eye," the beholder being, in imagination, placed at a considerable elevation, so as to take a comprehensive view of the city and the whole country for some distance around.

The view is accompanied with an Outline Key, in which the different localities are numbered, and a Descriptive Manual containing all the information necessary to enable one to use the view to advantage in teaching or lecturing.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL TIMES.

This is a Weekly Religious Paper, published at the very low price of ONE DOLLAR A YEAR. It is designed for Parents, Teachers, and all who are engaged or interested in the religious training of the young. It is also an excellent Family Paper.

A portion of the Sunday-School Times is occupied with Narratives and other matter particularly interesting to young persons. Teachers will find in it much that they will like to read to their classes—interesting matter prepared to their hands, and such as they cannot find elsewhere. For the same reasons, members of Bible-classes, and the older scholars generally, will be greatly benefitted by the perusal of this paper.

The Sunday-School Times has every week a report of the choicest matter, selected from the Noon Prayer Meetings, which are so interesting to all classes of Christians.

Besides a large amount of general religious intelligence, the Sunday-School Times contains all the most recent Sunday-school news. It reports all the important Conventions of Sunday-school teachers. It discusses the questions which most interest and perplex teachers and parents, respecting the various methods of Religious Training for the young; the means of gaining the attention and affections of children and especially of securing their conversion and bringing them to Christ. The subject of Mission-Schools for cities, and of Sunday-school missionary work for the interior, it thoroughly canvassed. Indeed, there is hardly a topic of practical importance to any who are interested in the subject of religious education, which is not here brought under consideration from week to week.

The conductors of this paper endeavor to remember that the great end of all Christian effort is to bring men to Christ. They aim accordingly, to put into every number of the paper something which shall have for its direct object the conversion of souls.

SPECIAL OFFER.

The proprietors of the Sunday-School Times have acquired the sole, exclusive right of sale of the splendid work mentioned above the MAP OF ANCIENT JERUSALEM, offer it as a special premium to those superintendents, teachers, or others, who will assist in getting new subscribers to the paper.

We offer this superb premium to any one who will send us the names of 12 new subscribers and $12 in cash.

CAUTION.

☞ In every case, before beginning to canvass, be sure to write to us and obtain all the necessary documents and instructions. These will help you greatly in prosecuting the work, and will save you many mistakes. Enclose 3 cents to pay postage. Address

PRINTING OFFICE OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL TIMES,
118 South Four h street, Philadelphia.

N. B.—Specimens of the Sunday-School Times, and a copy of the Map of Ancient Jerusalem, may be seen at the Bookstore of WM. LEWIS, Huntingdon.
